

COMMUNITY SPORTS REPORT

Contributed photo

The boys from the Hawks Soccer Club out of Pullman-Moscow are pictured at the Crossfire Premier Challenge under-12 tournament held July 21-24 in Redmond, Wash. The boys reached the semifinals in the Gold bracket but lost 2-1. The Crossfire tournament is the largest, top-level international tournament in the Northwest, with more than 600 teams participating.

SOCCER

The boys from the Hawks Soccer Club out of Pullman-Moscow were semifinalists in the Gold bracket of the Crossfire Premier Challenge under-12 tournament held from July 21-24 in Redmond, Wash.

The Challenge is the largest top-level international tournament in the Northwest, with more than 600 teams participating. Successful group stage play earned the Hawks a wildcard spot in the semifinal round, where they lost 1-2 in double-overtime to Maple Valley Premier — the team which would go on to claim the championship.

Coached by Mark Lange and Brian French, the Hawks form the only team in the region to compete at the premier level. Their U12 Crossfire Premier Challenge lineup includes Henry Forseth, Drew Franklin, Evan French, Cade Hill, Kai Hirose, Leon Lange, Rawley Larkin, Caleb Northcroft, Aaron Oatley (not pictured), Adrien Reineke-Quinlan (not pictured), Jackson Sutton, Max Turneaure (not pictured) and Dante Wallace.